WAUBEKA FAMILY CAMPGROUND

WAUBEKA'S HIDDEN HISTORY: A PIECE OF CAMP WAUBEKA'S PAST.

Before the brush and weeds were cleared away in preparation for the upcoming camping season, one of the property's old entrances on Farm Road, a stone gate almost certainly goes back to at least the 1930s when Waubeeka was a Boy Scout camp. Camp Waubeeka Boy Scout Camp operated from 1928 through the 1970's. In 1928, Westchester's former Bronx River Boy Scout Council bought 150 acres in Copake to establish a camp. The boys stayed in platform tents in the fields and woods or in open faced lean-tos. Camp Waubeeka Boys Scout Camp, one of three racially integrated camps, had none of the elaborate sports and other facilities of private camps. The boys swam in the camp's two ponds and hiked to Rudd Pond, Bash Bish Falls and other destinations. Waubeeka also offered classes to help the boys earn merit badges, particularly nature related ones. According to a 1940 newspaper article, a group of curious Scouts explored a "secret" cave close to the camp! Fast forward nearly a century later and you will still see the stone gate. As for the "secret" cave...mum's the word!
